Jack and Jill of America, Inc. Charters Ten New Chapters in 2022

WASHINGTON, November 1, 2022—Jack and Jill of America, Incorporated welcomed ten new chapters in September and October, increasing the organization's total number of chapters nationally to 262. The new chapters are in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Illinois.

Jack and Jill of America, Incorporated is a membership organization of mothers with children ages 2-19, dedicated to nurturing future African American leaders by strengthening children through leadership development, volunteer service, philanthropic giving, and civic duty. Founded in 1938, the organization has a current membership of more than 12,000 mothers and is regarded as the largest and most prominent African American family organization, representing 40,000 family members nationwide including mothers, fathers, and children.

"For 84 years, Jack and Jill of America has been committed to nurturing future African American leaders" said Kornisha McGill Brown, National President of Jack and Jill of America, Incorporated. "We are so grateful that charter members of our newest chapters have seen the importance of our mission and decided to join our organization. We eagerly await to see the amazing impact that these families will have on their communities in service and commitment to the vision of Jack and Jill to support all children and communities where our members reside."
